How long will I serve?

Jurors for the Western District of North Carolina are generally summoned for a three or four week period. Jurors serving in the Asheville Divisions will generally appear more than one time for jury selections during this term and be required to attend while seated on a jury trial. Jurors serving in the Charlotte and Statesville Divisions will generally report for jury selections on the first day of the three week term and then only be required to appear, if selected for a case, while that case is being tried. Trials in the Western District of North Carolina usually last from two to three days each.

Must I call the night before I appear for jury duty?

The Court's schedule sometimes changes at the last minute, therefore it is important to call the telephone number printed on your summons on the evening before the summons date. You will need your 9 digit participant number located by the bar code on your summons to enter into the jury system. Specific instructions for your service will be provided beginning at 5:00 pm the night before your service is scheduled. The recording may direct you to report to the courthouse on the summons date or it may delay your date to report by up to one week.

Can I get a postponement or permanent excuse?

If you would like to postpone your jury service to a more convenient time, use the Remarks section on the back of your questionnaire indicating when you can serve within the next six months. If you are seeking a permanent excuse, mail the questionnaire back with a note of explanation and any supporting documentation such as a doctor's note, certificate of prior jury service or proof of a new address.

Will I be paid for my jury service?

The U.S. District Court will pay you, by check, an attendance fee of $40.00 per day plus round trip mileage from your zip code area and parking (see below for parking rates). Payment vouchers and checks are processed on a weekly basis, therefore if you appear more than one day you may receive more than one check for your service. The attendance payment is taxable income and should be declared. Jurors who earn over $600 in attendance income in one calendar year will receive a 1099 Form.

Statesville Jurors should park in the lot beside Charlotte Observer/Iredell Bureau building. Parking in this lot is free. If you receive a parking ticket please turn it into the jury clerk and it will be taken care of for you.

Charlotte Jurors are to park in any public parking lot. Please be sure to follow the instructions for that lot as most require payment when you park in the morning. Jurors will be reimbursed $8.00 per day for parking no matter what lot you park in.

Is there a dress code?

While no formal dress code exists, jurors are requested to dress in a manner respectful to the Court. You will have to pass through a metal detector each time you enter the courthouse, therefore you may not want to wear steel toe shoes and leave excess metal and jewelry at home to speed your entry.
